

Call 05/2022 - Announcement of public selection based on qualifications and interview for no. 1 Junior fellowship in the field of “Validation and management of data of marine pollutants” by the Research Section “Oceanography” – OCE of the National Institute of Oceanography and Applied Geophysics – OGS.

QUALIFICATIONS ASSESSMENT

The following candidates are admitted to the interview:

	Surname and Name (In alphabetical order)	Qualifications assessment (Max 30 points)
1	DOUSS Nessim	21/30
2	EL KHALIL Cherif	26/30
3	FRENCH Megan Anne	25/30

The interviews will take place in videoconference call on 13th April 2022 at 09.30 am, through the following Google Meet link:

<https://meet.google.com/zig-niyp-uvz>

that will be active from 09.15 on the same day. The session is public, and all the people interested in listening can connect through the above-mentioned link.

The System requirements for the connection are indicated in the “Requisiti di Sistema per videoconferenza con Google Meet.pdf” document which is published on the OGS website at the Call 05/2022 page.

The interviews will take place in the following order:

13/04/2022 from 09.30 am SCHEDULE
	Surname and name
1	DOUSS Nessim
2	EL KHALIL Cherif
3	FRENCH Megan Anne

The Selection Board will verify the presence of the candidates at 09.15 am at the beginning of the session and will check microphones and webcams. In case of any connection problem, candidates should promptly send an email to the following address: gpinna@ogs.it

Please note that to participate in the interview each candidate must show a valid ID document with the photograph, the number, and the expiration date.

Candidates who will not connect at the given date and time for the interview will forfeit any right to participate and will be excluded from the selection.

Publication date: 23rd March 2022